

A Brief History of the Partnership Project

1996 – Judea Reform Congregation purchases acreage on Cornwallis Road with the vision of eventually creating a “Jewish Campus”.

1998 – Lerner Jewish Community Day School opens its doors in its new facility.

2003 – Federation conducts a community-wide Strategic Plan that concludes the community wants a Jewish Community Center, Senior Services and Programs, as well as additional programming for Teens.

2004 – Lerner Jewish Community Day School Board determines that facilities need to be expanded.

2005 – LJCDS and the Federation come together to form the Jewish Community Partnership (JCP).

The JCP retains Steve Drysdale to conduct a community-wide Feasibility Study that determines that we are ready for a community facility and have the capacity to raise $6 - $7 million dollars.

2006 – The JCP held a covenant signing ceremony for the community, formalizing the partnership of the day school and Federation.

Steve Drysdale is retained as our project consultant.
The JCP formalizes itself as an organization with a board of directors and committee structure.

The Federation and JCP conduct a community-wide survey to determine what the community expects from a JCC.

The silent phase of the Capital Campaign begins - $850,000 is raised from 12 families.

2007 – SAVE THE DATE! June 3, 2007 at Judea Reform the JCP will launch the public capital campaign

2008 – Ground Breaking

2009 – Ribbon Cutting
